Hart Swimming Club Terms and Conditions – Notice Period

As per our Club Constitution, a member wishing to resign membership of the Club must give to the Club Membership Secretary written notice of their resignation via post or electronic means.

The notice period required for a member wishing to resign membership of the Club shall be defined with the Club membership ‘Terms and Conditions’ with fees paid according to these ‘Terms and Conditions’.

Our Club membership ‘Terms and Conditions’ are as per the Club Membership Registration Form completed and accepted on becoming a member of Hart Swimming Club.

For ease of reference, a copy of the Terms and Conditions notice period, contained within our Registration Form, is provided below.

I agree to provide 2 full months’ notice in writing prior to leaving Hart SC * squad training fees are paid in 12 monthly instalments and cover the regular season training sessions that run from September to the end of July, with a break over the Christmas period. Any swimmer leaving mid season is liable for the pro-rata August squad instalment. Any training sessions offered over the summer break (August) will be at an additional cost. Squad fees are subject to revision by the Committee and any changes shall be advised as appropriate.
